Full Bio

Cryptic are a progressive metal band hailing from San Diego, CA. Cryptic are composed of 4 extremely talented musicians, all under the age of 18. Each member has brought his own musical influences from Thrash Metal to Punk; from Blues to Progressive Rock. These influences have combined to make a unique sound. Cryptic were formed in April 2017 when Keith Dobson (Vocals/Lead Guitar), began developing a project with his friends Riley Hutchison (Bass), and Jesus Oviedo (Drums). The three began writing and the shortly after band identity was formed. On March 22, 2019, during Cryptic's album release, Saul Peña-Lopez (Rhythm Guitar) was introduced and the line-up was complete. Cryptic is built on a dedication to music, friendship, and an unwavering belief in free speech. Cryptic believe that the arts, and especially music, are the last forms of free expression . . . a place to have a voice and to stand for what one believes.

[We] believe that the arts, and especially music, are the last forms of free expression. [Music is] a place to have a voice and to stand for what one believes.

Cryptic released their full length debut album entitled The Gates on March 22, 2019. The Gates is a 9 song album that tells a story of the rise, fall, and redemption of humanity. The album was recorded at EchoBox Media Studio and was produced by Keith Dobson and Aubrey Dobson. The band have formed their own record label, Volume 11 Records, under which The Gates was published. The Gates is currently available for download and streaming on most digital music platforms.
